A Note From Pastor Andrew

Well, cleaning and preparation for the big move has commenced. Thanks to all that have helped this week get things ready, but we still have a lot of work to be done. We need people to help pack up all of our stuff, ASAP!!! Don't forget this Saturday we will have a paint day and next week the sanctuary carpet will be installed. Things are happening, YAH!!! I hope you're as excited as I am to be able to have our own space and to become reacquainted with each other through the power of the Holy Spirit at work. We still need a lot of help to get the space ready, but before you know it, we will be worshipping at 911 Baldwin. So, I ask once again, how can you help? Is it physical, spiritual, monetary? How can you help CTK move forward into this new chapter? Over the last few weeks I have seen and felt a new energy, and my prayer is that we keep it going for a long time as we refocus on our identity individually and communally. However, we only can find success if we all chip in, all of us. I'm reminded of two things as to think about what needs to be done. One-"with God on our side nothing is impossible. Two-the motto of the ELCA. It is God's work, our hands. God is the one at the helm, but it is the Holy Spirit moving through us that does his work in the world. How will your "hands" help to see God's work done, in every possible way? Only a few more weeks and we dive into this new chapter full force. May God enliven you.
